Colorful Meeting Observes Bethel's 24th Anniversary

Torrance Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, celebrated its 24th anniversary recently with an initiation and membership, and past queens night observance.

The Bethel was beautifully decorated with a large basket of purple and white asters and chrysanthemums, placed at the queen's and princesses' station. Five candidates, lovely in pastel formal wear were received into the Order, and each was presented with a corsage by the Bethel.

Escorted and presented to the Bethel were past queens of Torrance Bethel Job's Daughters, Mmes. Ethel Derouin, Melvin Hyde, both of Torrance and Edith Brook of Los Angeles. Miss Jeannette Harris, choir director, played a piano solo, "Jealousy" (Jade).

During the evening members of the Bethel were honored. Members later retired to the banquet room where the purple and white theme was followed for table decorations, gay with autumn flowers and colorful nut cups. A large birthday cake was served with ice cream and a clever wall decoration, depicting a musical staff and notes representing "Happy Birthday" formed an effective background for the honored guests' table.

A short musical program under direction of Janie Moffatt, treasurer, included a skit, "Sweet Violets," enacted by Peggy Wood, and Marilyn Edwards, and a quintet composed of Carol Campbell, Janice Crabtree, Carol Maley, Janie Moffatt, and Mary Ann Lenton.

Alice Olson, and Janet Robinson did a can-can kick number, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. O. H. Olson.

Chmara, Lindsay Thompson, Steven Ramirez, Bonnie Blackburn, Donnie Crowell, Carla Cramer, Neil Henkel, and Mary Burke; honorable mention went to—Robin Randall, Steven Turner, Lowell Newbill, Frances Herrera, and Kristine Richards.

Food booths, game booths, and bazaar booths, 28 in all, were set up to help make the evening a huge success for adults and children alike. Mrs. Bruce Howey and Glen Harcastle were co-chairmen for the carnival and reported "the proceeds would almost provide the amount necessary to meet the tentative budget for the year to carry on child welfare in our local organization."

A word of thanks and appreciation is sent to all who contributed and helped in booths, or in any way, to carry on this annual event to help keep the children entertained on Halloween.

Y-Teens Tell Success of Yule Project

Torrance Y-Teens are gradually becoming used to having the handsome big hall of the new YWCA for their meeting place. Several clubs have new advisors, namely: Mrs. Robert Jamison for the Torrance freshmen, Mrs. Angus McVicar for the Sophisticats, Mrs. Jack Day for the Debonnaires, and Miss Jean Lancaster for the Beta Y-Teens of Narbonne High. Mrs. Newton Sprouse and Mrs. J. R. Wyckoff of Harbor City continue as advisors for the Betas. The freshmen Y-Teens, under the

Evening Party Fetes ALA Past Presidents

Complimenting past presidents of the Auxiliary of Bert S. Crossland Post 170, Mrs. Dean L. Sears entertained recently in her Post avenue home, Mrs. Sydney R. Smith assisted as co-hostess.

Yellow chrysanthemums were used throughout the rooms and witches and black cats suggested the Halloween theme used for party appointments.

Guests were Mesdames Mary Toombs, Oliva Lee, Velora Murphy, Mary Babcock, Merle Williams, Emma Evans, Annie Olson, and Miss Corlisa Reeve. Bridge and canasta occupied the ladies with Mmes Toombs and Williams as prizewinners. Delicious black bottom pie and coffee were served at the close of play.

Women of Moose Honor Ten Year Members 31st

Honoring "ten year" members of Torrance Chapter 44, Women of the Moose, a pot luck supper was given Wednesday evening in their clubhouse. Feature of the evening was revelation of mystery pairs.

A project of the chapter was a banquet served Saturday evening to the City Employees Association with Ila Mae Ambach as dining-room chairman and Elsie Smith as chef. Tables were beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums by Lillian Nelson, decoration chairman, and her committee. Last night's card party was a splendid success under chairmanship of Ruth Slack, library chairman.

A handsome dictionary was among the chapter's gifts to Moose Heart recently, according to the chairman, Mrs. Fritz. The chapter was represented Sunday at the College of Regents breakfast held in Los Angeles.

Next regular meeting is set for November 14 and all co-workers are urged to attend.
